Dear Robin

Thank you very much for your recent gift of £418.86 to CHAS, raised at your concert performance at Glasgow Cathedral. I also want to say a huge thank you to Campbell University Choir as well as Glasgow Youth Junior and Senior Choirs for performing so beautifully. Through your generosity you are helping to provide some much needed care and support for the children and families who use our services.

For families supported by CHAS, simple things like messy play can be challenging. The children may have complex equipment and the thought of stray paint can be daunting - not to mention the time and energy taken to tidy away. But, when they come to the hospices, mess and gunge are welcomed! The outcome is happy children and precious memories for the family that will truly last a lifetime.

Our Activities Coordinators are trained to work with children of all ages and abilities to ensure they don't miss out on the fun, masterpieces don't come from the hands – they come from the heart!

During one of our messy play sessions, Christian created a masterpiece with his feet and that very special work of art will shortly become part of CHAS's history – watch this space!

CHAS is about making special memories, creating moments of joy and living life. And thanks to your support, we can be there for even more children and families from across Scotland.

Thank you again for being part of the CHAS family.

Best wishes
