Dear Robin

CHAS is a charity with a mission, we're going to make sure that wherever there's a child in Scotland with a life shortening condition, we're on hand to support their entire family. Your generous donation of £399.59 raised at YIP's Children's Choir Concert can help us achieve that, thank you. A huge thank you also to the Choir for putting on such a fantastic show, we received such great feedback from the audience.

Your gift has come at a really important time. We've launched our exciting new campaign, 'Keep the Joy Alive' and we need your help to create a surge of awareness - it's really easy. All we are asking is that you write your name in our special CHAS Alphabet and give us a message of support. It's simple and fun.

Creating our Alphabet was so exciting, you can read all about it in the enclosed brochure. We are incredibly lucky to be surrounded by the very best artists – the children who use our services. The Alphabet truly represents what CHAS means to them – it is fun, colourful, playful and bright.

Robyn Boyd designed the letter A for her big sister Abbie in the new CHAS alphabet. Mum Lisa, who was with her during our creative sessions, said:

"CHAS is a lifeline for us. Robyn was so excited to be involved and picked Abbie's favourite colours for the design. She was overjoyed to create something so special for her big sister."

"CHAS has helped us so much over the years and brought tremendous joy to Abbie's life.

Please help us to reach more families like the Boyd's. Send us your message of support today.

Thank you for helping us keep the joy alive
