Dear Robin,

On behalf of us all at Youth Music, we would like to extend our warm thanks to you, Christopher Tin, Sue Fink, the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and the 200 voices of Prima Vocal, Lucis and the Angel City Chorale. We are delighted to say that the bucket collections on the night raised an amazing £541.84 on the night – which is fantastic for a bucket shake!

I know myself and all my Youth Music colleagues that attended on the night were blown away by the quality of the compositions, the musicians and the singers. We were equally impressed with the diversity of music on offer also – we travelled the world without moving our feet!

The concert was a positive demonstration of how music can, and should, be enjoyed by all – something very close to our hearts here at Youth Music.

Each year, there are over 350 Youth Music projects running across the country, providing music-making opportunities for over 75,000 children and young people in challenging circumstances. Thanks to your help we can continue to make sure that music-making is for the many and not just the few and take a step closer to reaching our goal of all children and young people participating in life-changing music-making projects.

Many thanks again for your support and we hope we can work together again in the future on similar Give a Gig and fundraising ideas.

Very best wishes

Mark Pierce
